Pope Francis and the Synod office in Rome are inviting the whole Church to become Synodal.

We are invited to journey together, listening to the promptings of the Holy Spirit in our lives & in the lives of the people we meet. The whole 'Synod' will be a two-year process beginning in every diocese in 2021 and moving on to a national then international listening exercise. If you are receiving this via email: Click here to read more.

PARISHES CONSULTATION: SYNOD 2021-2023 (IN CHURCH)

Readings for Sunday 14th November:

First Reading: Daniel 12: 1-3

Response: "Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you."

Second Reading: Hebrews 10: 11-14,18

Acclamation: "Alleluia, alleluia! Stay awake and stand ready, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming. Alleluia."

Gospel: Mark 13: 24-32

REFLECTION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL: Even in our darkest hour the Lord does not abandon us. His eye always upon us He watches over us night and day. In today's reading Jesus speaks of being on our guard for we do not know the day or the hour when we will be called to Him. Lord, sometimes our minds wonder what it will be like for us at the end of this life. How will it happen, is there something after this world! But you have told us that you go to prepare a place for us where you are... Lord I believe, help my unbelief.

LET US PRAY FOR ALL OUR SICK:

Rhoda Robertson, John Gourley, Doreen Graham, June Stephenson, Margaret O'Brien, Dorothy Milor, Rosemary McIlvenna, Monica McKinnon, Peter Graham & Aileen.

FOR OUR SICK CHILDREN: Joseph Relph, Josh Graham, James Taylor, Theo Abbott

Memorial Mass - Remembering all who died since start of Pandemic

Since the Pandemic began, the ways in which we have been able to say goodbye to our loved ones and to celebrate their funerals have been severely restricted. This applies to those who died with the Coronavirus and to those we have lost through other circumstances. Every family and parish are finding ways to express their loss. As part of our Diocesan family approach to these difficult times we shall especially dedicate the month of November to our remembrance. For November, every parish is invited to prepare a 'Book of Remembrance' to contain the names of all those who died during these difficult days. Each parish is asked to celebrate a special Mass for their dead using the Book of Remembrance as a focus. Each Episcopal Area will have an opportunity to gather for another Mass for our Dead at which Bishop Robert plans to preside. These Books of Remembrance will then be brought to Saint Mary's Cathedral, Newcastle the following week, so that all those named may be remembered at a Solemn Requiem Mass celebrated by Bishop Robert at 11.00am on Saturday 27th November. Representation from parishes will be invited to this Mass whilst respecting ongoing need for distancing.

If you've lost anyone since the Pandemic and would like to have them remembered in this way, please sign the sheet provided in Church, thank you Fr. Shaun
